

About

- Mangiante Photography, LLC, is a full-service photography company based in Memphis, Tenn., located at 4646 Poplar Ave., Suite 220. The Web site is www.mangiantephoto.com.
- The company was founded in 2001 by Gene Mangiante, who currently serves as president of Mangiante Photography.
- Services offered by Mangiante Photography include school, sports and special event photography.
- In 2004, Mangiante Photography acquired Taylor PhotoWorks, based in Oxford, Miss., followed by the acquisition of 30-year-old Flash Foto in Gainesville, Fla., in 2006.
- Mangiante Photography employs six full-time staff members and photographers, in addition to more than 20 part-time photographers and support staff.
- Party Pics® is the company's event photography division focusing on corporate and college parties, social outings and fundraisers. Photos from Party Pics® events are posted and offered for sale online within 24 hours of the event.
- Party Pics® serves college campuses in four states: Tennessee, Mississippi, Florida and Kentucky.
- Mangiante's business model is centered on an Internet-based proofing and ordering process, allowing a quick turnaround for customers. The company contracts with an e-commerce and a professional photography lab for ordering needs allowing a five- to seven-day delivery time.
- The office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Portrait sittings or other photography sessions can be scheduled in advance by calling (901) 767-6555.

- The core area of growth for Mangiante Photography is in school and sports photography.
- Mangiante Photography's work has been featured in numerous publications, both nationally and internationally, including Human Resource Executive, I Do for Brides and Bloomberg News Service.

Client Testimonials

"Mangiante's passion about photography shines through their professional, dependable and customer-focused attitude in all of their services."

Christian Brothers University
– Elisa Marus

"Mangiante isn't too large and customers aren't just numbers – they make each shoot a personal experience for everyone."

Immaculate Conception Cathedral School
– Betty Buchignani

"Customer service sets them apart from anyone I have dealt with. The entire staff is very enthusiastic about what they do, and that is something you don't see every day. From start to finish, this was the best experience, hands down."

Germantown Parks and Recreation
